A Sensation in the Norfolk Primary Investigation Before Committee.

TALLY SHEETS BROUGHT OUT

Charles O. Hames Declares He Voted Only for Lambeth, and Sheets Show Otherwise.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., March 31.—The sensa tion of the day in the primary contest before Mesers. Gilliam, Smith and Watkins, was in testimony of Charles O. Haines, former vice president and general manager of the Atlantic and Danville Railway. He was introduced by the good government faction and he declared on oath that he believed the election to have been fair and that he had watched it closely. He voted for S. S. Lambeth for the Legislature, he declared, and saw his vote recorded. He voted for no other candidate.

At this point Mr. Walter H. Taylor, of counsel for the anti-administration forces, created the sensation. He produced the tally sheets, which showed Mr. Haines recorded as having voted for Lambeth and also for W. W. Old, Jr. He denied having voted as the sheets showed that having voted as the sheets showed that he had.

He is one of the witnesses summoned He is one of the witnesses summoned by the administration people to prove the corectness of the tally sheets and the outcome of his testimony was a bombshell in their camp. EXTEND TO OLD POINT.

Special Master H. H. Little has recommended to the United States District Court that the Hampton Roads Railway be completed across Mill Creek, between Hampton and Old Point. The work will cost $30,000, and receivers' certificates for this amount will be authorized. New proceedings were filed to-day against the company by the Prudent Life and Trust company by the Prudent Life and Trust Company of Phmiladelphia of $750,000 of the company's bond. The Philadeiphia creditors seek to have a new set of receivers appointed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DELAPLANE, VA., March 31.—The neighborhood of the hamlet of Mechanicsville has been treated to several sensations within the last few days.
The first was the return of Miss Annie Strother and Mr. Ernest Phillips from Washington, D. C., as bride and groom.
Theirs was not an elopement, as each,
though much short of middle life, had reached years of discretion. The young lady professed to be about to visit the capital to have her eyes treated. The presumption is that Mr. Phillips has proved an effectual salve for them.
On Sunday evening the barn of Mr. T.
M. Triplett, at Markham, was burned to the ground. The harness and feed were destroyed. The horses were saved.

Mr. Alfred Walters, near Madison Mills, was paralyzed at his home again yesterday—the second stroke in the past few years. He has not been able to talk or cat solid food since the first stroke, as his throat was paralyzed then. He is doing as well as could be expected.

The farmers are at last making some progress with their plowing, and early vegetables, potatoes, peas and other tilings are being put into the gardens. The lee and snow of Monday and yesterday are not very encourfiging, though. The Locust Dale Glee Club gave an entainment at Madison Mills Friday night for the benefit of the Episcopai Sunday school-room to be erected there. A neat sum was turned over to Mrs. Lee Tallaferro for the fund.

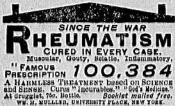

Mr. J. W. Tinsley was here yesterday and scompleted the telephone line to Radignt. This line puts all of the principal stores and public places in the county in direct communication, which, is a great convenience.

CHESTER, VA., March 31.—The Contederate Pension Board met at Chesterfield Courthouse on last Monday and approved a number of applications from veterans and widows of veterans. The new law and increased appropriation, granting to pensioners increase of allowance for disability on account of disease or age, has made an increase of work on the board by renewed applications to be rerated. The board has constant trouble by the failure of applicants to have their petitions properly filled, many failing to produce or secure the affidivities of comprades and resident citizens, and the other certificates required by the form. This is an important item to all applicants and the veterans, in order to avoid any fraud and keep out such as are not culti-

SPEAKS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ALEXANDRIA, VA., March 31.—After short devotional service and the reading of the minutes of yesterday's session of the conference by the secretary, the regular business was taken up.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Bledsoe and Rev. Dr. B. F. Lipscomb, of the Virginia Conference, were presented by the bishop.

Dr Bledson addressed the conference the committee appointed by the last session of the Virginia Conference to consion of the Virginia Conference to confer with this body as to the future control of the Baltimore and Richmond
Christian Advocate, the church paper
npw jointly published by the two bodies.
He urged upon his hearers the necessity of prompt action on the matter.
Rev. Dr. J. W. Duffey, presiding elder of the Washington District, moved that the matter be referred to the Committee on Publishing Interests.

MINISTERS BLAMELESS.

The twentieth question, relative to the lives and characters of the ministers, was continued from yesterday, and one by one they were all passed. Bishop Wilson stated that he was well pleased with the good showing made, for among so many there was not one against whom any accusation could be made.

Rev. James P. Stump, pastor of the local church, reported everything in a flourishing condition in his charge. During the past year $5.50 had been raised for all purposes.

Dr. Duffey recommended that Rev. J. S. Hutchinson, pastor of the church at Fredericksburg, should be placed upon the superannuated list for one year until his health could improve. His name was referred. to the Committee on Conference Relations.

The name of Rev. W. G. Hammond was

THEY ACTUALLY DO THE WORK

Food Eaten is Worthless Unless Digest-

Food taken into the stomach, which from the nature of the food or the condition of the stomach, is not digested, is worse than no food at all. This is a true statement as far as it goes and a great many dyspeptics go only this far with their ressoning. They argue with themselves that because their stomachs do not do the work given them, they must be given less work; in other words, they must be starved. It would be just as sensible for a business man who is unable to do all his own work to cut down his business to his own capacity as it is for a man to starve himself to relieve his stomach. The sensible business man employs help and goes forward with his business. Likewise the sensible dyspeptic will employ help for his stomach and give his body proper nourishment. statement as fer as it goes and a stomach and give his body proper nourishment.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets actually do the work assigned to them. They relieve weak and overburdened stomachs of a great portion of digestive action. Their component parts are identical with those of the digestive fluids and secretions of the stomach and they simply take up the grind and carry on the work just the same as a good, strong, healthy stomach would do it.

On this account Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are perfectly natural in their action and effects. They do not cause any unnatural or violent disturbance in the stomach or bowels. They themselves digest the food and supply the system with all the nourishment contained in what is eaten and carry out Nature's plans for the sustenance and maintenance of the body.

the sustenance and maintenance of the body.

How much more sensible is this method than that employed by many sufferers from weak stomachs. By this means the body and brain get all the good, nutritious food they need and the man is properly nourished and equipped to carry on his work and perform his duties. He could not possibly be in proper working condition by starving himself or employing some new fengled, insufficient food that does not contain enough nutriment for a year-old baby. A strong man doing strong work must be properly fed and this applies to the brain as well as the body.
